Dora

Fluted white porcelain for the table, tea and coffee

TABLEWARE CATALOGUE

GRHS.AE

A quiet rhythm of fluted relief

Every piece of Dora carries the same fine vertical flute — on plate rims, around bowls, cups and the teapot — so a full table reads as one set. Bright white porcelain keeps the attention on the food.

One family covers plated service, sharing platters, tea and coffee, and table accessories.

UCCELLO · MADE IN GREECE

Handmade

Shaped by hand, finished in nineteen glazes.

Each piece is thrown and glazed by hand in Greece, the homeland of ceramics, so no two plates are exactly alike. One family of shapes — plates, platters, deep dishes, bowls and mugs — is brought to life by a palette of glazes, from quiet white stoneware to deep forest green.

Graystone

Raw stone, clean white.

A clear white glaze meets an exposed stone-grey rim, so every piece keeps a visible trace of the clay it was made from. The effect is calm and architectural — a neutral base that lets colour on the plate do the talking.

Graystone suits restaurants that want a natural, honest table without losing the brightness of white. It works from breakfast to tasting menus and mixes easily with every other Uccello glaze.

Onyx

Matte black, quietly dramatic.

Deep matte black against a natural clay rim gives Onyx its graphic, almost sculptural presence. Food reads sharper on a dark ground — greens glow, sauces gain depth.

Designed for evening service, grill and fine-dining concepts, Onyx pairs well with gold or brushed cutlery and low, warm lighting.

ONYX

HANDMADE · GLAZE 03

Elephant

Soft grey, gentle texture.

A warm, speckled grey with a velvet matte finish, Elephant feels as soft as it looks. The tone sits between stone and linen, adding depth without competing with the food.

It brings a relaxed, contemporary mood to cafés and all-day dining, and layers beautifully with wood, linen and dark table tops.

ELEPHANT

HANDMADE · GLAZE 04

Desert

Sun-baked sand, speckled by hand.

Warm sand glaze scattered with dark speckles recalls dry earth under a midday sun. Each plate carries its own pattern of flecks, making the set feel collected rather than mass-produced.

Desert is a natural fit for Mediterranean, Middle Eastern and rustic kitchens, where earthy colour and generous sharing plates set the tone.

HANDMADE · GLAZE 05

Helios

Bright white, golden edge.

Helios pairs a glossy speckled white with a warm, honey-coloured clay body that shows on the rim and outside. The contrast catches the light like late afternoon sun.

A friendly, sunny glaze for brunch, bakeries and coastal dining — at home on light linen as much as on dark wood.

HELIOS

HANDMADE · GLAZE 06

Ivory

Creamy, soft and timeless.

A gentle ivory glaze with fine natural speckles gives this collection a warm, almost porcelain-like softness. Edges stay subtle, letting the shapes speak.

Ivory is the most versatile handmade glaze in the range: elegant enough for fine dining, relaxed enough for daily service.

Sand

Warm beige, matte and calm.

A matte beige glaze with a soft speckle, Sand brings the colour of a quiet beach to the table. Its tone is warm but restrained, so it supports food rather than framing it.

It sits naturally with natural fibres, light woods and greenery — ideal for wellness concepts, cafés and hotel breakfasts.

Emerald

Deep green, earthy rim.

A rich blue-green glaze meets a raw, speckled clay edge, giving Emerald the depth of still water and the warmth of stone. The colour shifts gently with each firing.

A strong signature for Asian, seafood and modern bistro menus, Emerald makes white rice, fish and citrus look vivid.

Volcano

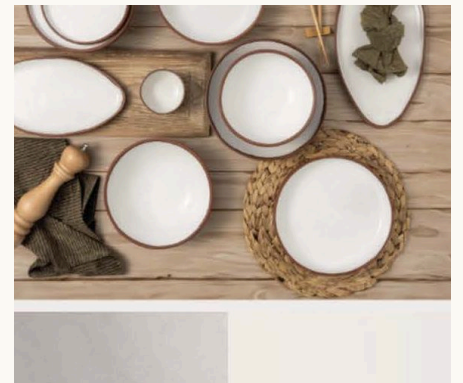

White on red-brown clay.

A clean white glaze framed by a dark red-brown clay rim — the colour of volcanic earth. The contrast is crisp, graphic and unmistakably handmade.

Volcano gives a modern edge to grills, sushi bars and bistros, especially alongside raw wood and dark linen.

Coconut

White glaze, chocolate rim.

Coconut layers a soft white glaze over a deep brown clay that shows on every edge. The result is warm and gentle, like the inside of its namesake.

A comfortable, inviting glaze for cafés, family restaurants and resort dining, equally suited to bowls of noodles and plates of pastries.

HANDMADE · GLAZE 11

Olive

Muted olive, matte finish.

Olive is a quiet green taken straight from Mediterranean groves — matte, earthy and slightly smoky. Darker clay edges add definition to each shape.

It brings natural colour to plant-forward menus and Mediterranean concepts, and works beautifully with brass, copper and linen.

Peacock

Reactive blue, never the same twice.

A reactive glaze that blooms into blues, greens and smoky greys as it fires. No two pieces share the same pattern, so every table setting is one of a kind.

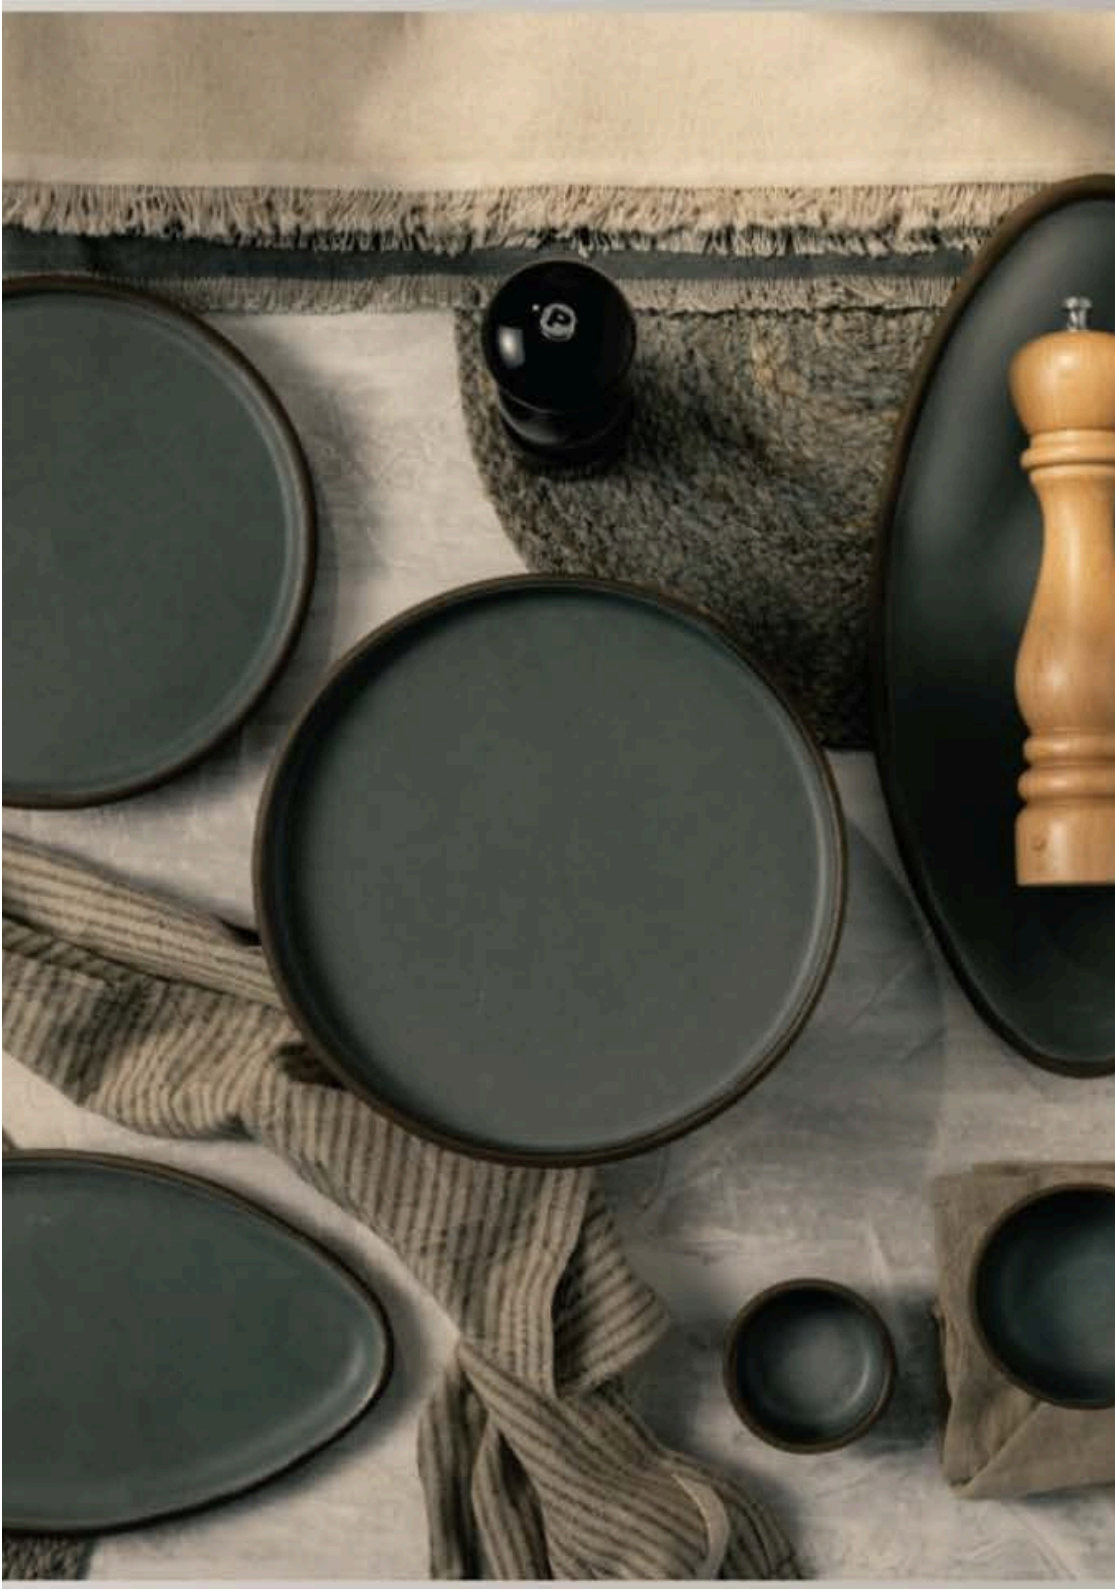

Peacock is a statement collection for chef-driven restaurants and seafood concepts that want the plate itself to be part of the story.

Forest

Dark green, deep and grounded.

A deep forest green on a dark clay body gives this glaze a dense, grounded character. The colour shifts from moss to slate with the light.

Forest anchors steakhouses, wine bars and autumnal menus, and pairs well with natural wood, leather and stone.

Titanium

Glossy white, raw dark clay.

Titanium contrasts a glossy white interior with a raw, textured dark clay exterior. Inside it is bright and smooth; outside it feels like hand-worked stone.

Ideal for rice, noodle and soup service, and for sushi and izakaya concepts where texture matters as much as colour.

Bronze

Metallic brown, warm sheen.

A metallic bronze glaze with a soft lustre gives these shapes a burnished, antique feel. Light pools on curves and edges, changing through the day.

Bronze suits lounges, steakhouses and evening dining, where it adds warmth and quiet luxury without gold.

Zebra

White splashed with black.

Bold black flecks scattered across a white glaze make Zebra playful and graphic. Every plate carries its own pattern, applied by hand.

A favourite for brunch, burger and street-food concepts, it photographs strikingly and stands out on dark tables.

Cookies & Carousel

Confetti speckles, cream base.

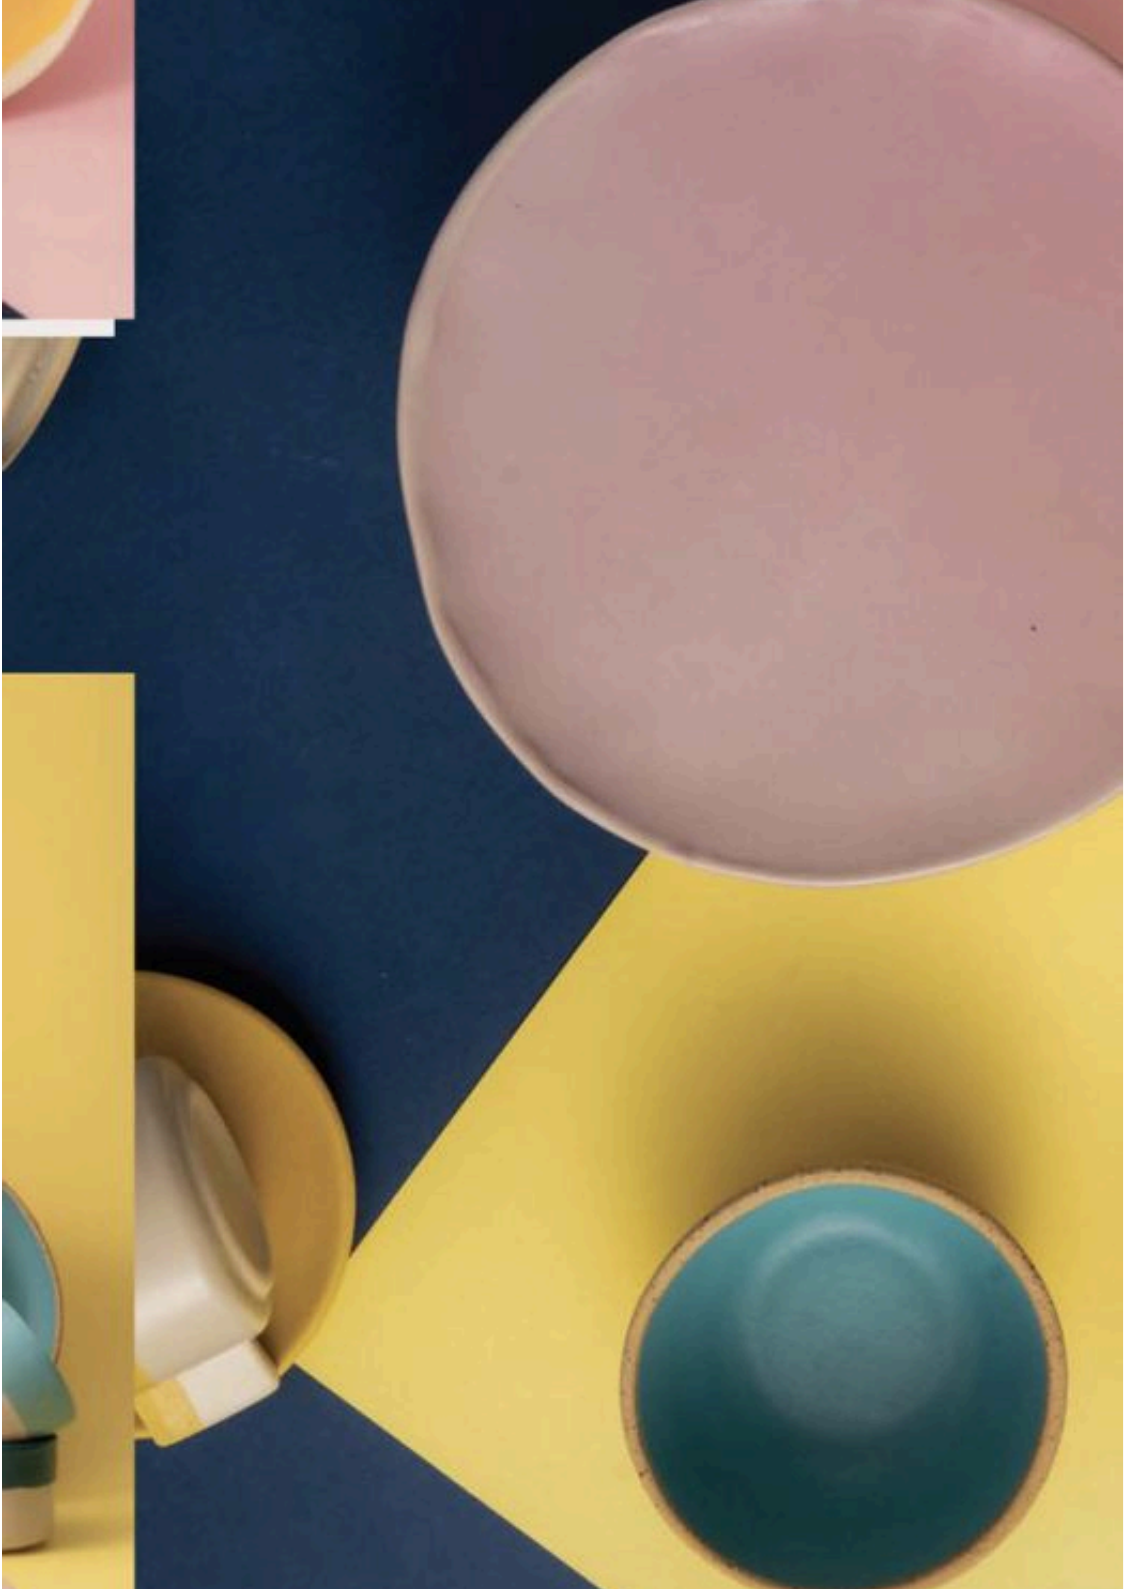

Cream and white glazes sprinkled with blue, red and green flecks — like a fairground carousel or a cookie jar. Cheerful, light and full of character.

Made for cafés, patisseries, ice-cream parlours and family dining, where the table should feel joyful.
