

ΣΚΛΑΡΝΑ

SKLARNA - design laboratory and glassware production. One day, we came across the Czech word "sklarna" and liked it so much for its capacity and lack of a short Russian equivalent that we adopted it as the brand name. Sklarna literally means "glassworks," a space where glass objects are born.

At our "sklarna," we create handmade glassware for homes and restaurants, from concept to completion. We work to order and develop our own lines of glassware and decor. We develop the concept of utilitarian art, making our glassware not only convenient and ergonomic, but also imbuing each piece with artistic value. Our mission is to create objects that combine visual and tactile perception, capable of evoking emotions and feelings in the viewer. Natural forms and simple shapes form the basis of Sklarna's design. Thanks to the diverse artistic possibilities of glass, we offer chefs a wide palette for creativity.
