Familiar luxury at your fingertips

Glass has been an integral part of our daily lives since ancient times.
The comfort we feel when drinking a beverage from a glass cup is proof that the glass is made of natural materials.
ADEIRA continues to create tableware that seems familiar yet brings luxury to your daily life.

Strength and Beauty.
These are at the heart of ADERIA's hospitality.

"Strength" and "Beauty"
These two elements support the chefs and impress the guests.
Tumblers that are easy to wash, easy to carry, and that are resistant to clouding, breakage and chipping.
ADEIRA focuses on beauty and functionality to bring life to the "spirit of hospitality".

Tebineri ——— P28-29

The warmth of hand made pottery's texture has been transferred to a glass tumbler.

The name of "Tebineri" came from a technique of pottery making, which means "making up the shape by hand and fingers without using potter's wheel.
We transferred the shape made by "tebineri" technique done by craftman with passion to the glass. It became a tumbler with gentle appearance.
These tumblers can match to traditional Japanese style pottery or earthenware. It's also good for casual usage because they are strong by the thick walls.

Tebineri fluid ——— P30

Depicted the texture like wave of water with a glass

We achieved to transfer the gentle shape like hand made blow glass by our original technology.
It's assymetric and easy to hold with your hand because some parts are widely dented. As they can suit to various materials or styles, you can enjoy co-ordination.

Tsuyoiko Glass ——— P74

Even small hands will find this glass easy to hold with the dimple in the middle. The perfect size for children, the small size holds about 100ml, and the medium size holds about 150ml when filled about eight-tenths full. Safety is covered with the easy-to-hold design and advanced reinforcement technology (ION-PRO-TECT).

Tsuyoiko Glass ——— P108

Kakurenbo

The glass's transparency is used to create a design that looks different on the inside and outside. The animals, only slightly visible when the glass is full, are revealed when the glass is emptied. We hope children will be excited during mealtime, just as when they are reading a picture book. This product was designed, incorporating the opinions and ideas of parents who are currently raising children.

nico

We hope that little hands and lips will come in contact with real glass during their daily lives and help them develop rich minds. We have incorporated these hopes in the small "Tsuyoiko Glass nico" (Strong Children's Glass nico) with a smiley face. The reinforced opening increases resistance to cracks and chips on the glass lip compared to regular glass and enhances safety.

アデリアレトロ (ADERIA RETRO)

Nostalgic yet new retro glassware featuring Showa-era cuteness.

"ADERIA RETRO" is a remake of the ADERIA glassware that was once used in households in the Showa era so that it can be used safely today. ADERIA's tableware was popular for its cute design and affordable price and adorned many tables in the Showa era. One of the most popular products was printed glasses with cute patterns such as flowers and animals. These products' nostalgia and warmth attract some customers. They have continued to use them even after production was discontinued. ADERIA RETRO was born from the encouragement of these fans. The new products maintain the traditional charm and are easy to use in today's lifestyles.

アデリアレトロ (ADERIA RETRO) P66-73

Ishizuka Glass, a manufacturer of a wide range of glass products from tableware to beverage bottles, was founded in 1819 and has produced various products. "ADERIA" was born in 1961, when we made our full-scale entry into the tableware business and has been enjoyed by people for more than 50 years. Many retro-pattern glasses and glass jars to make plum wine are made by ADERIA.

ION-PRO-TECT

ION-PRO-TECT is a chemical technology that reinforces glass by exchanging ions within the glass and creating a compressive stress layer. Since ION-PRO-TECT enables the treating of thin glass with complicated configuration, which conventional physical reinforcement technologies are not capable of processing, it is suited for the production of elegant items such as wine glasses.

IPT - Plaisir

This stemware and tumbler series combines high-quality and high functionality, perfect for formal occasions. The delicate stems of the stemware create an elegant look.
The tumbler features an ideal weight balance for a comfortable grip when pouring a drink, and a luxurious round design with a thick base.
The thin, smooth texture brings out the delicate flavor of your drink. It is IPT (fully ion strengthened) processed, making it both light and strong.

Aderia Mizore

"Aderia Mizore" is a glassware with a special treatment applied to the glass itself, giving it a sparkling surface.
The visual effect of this sparkle enhances the flavor and coldness of your drink, making it a specially crafted product that will enrich your everyday drinking experience.

※ Some products in the "Aderia Mizore" series have a thin opening to ensure a smooth mouthfeel. Please handle with care and gentleness.

"Mizore(Sleety)" finish
The finish of glass surface looks like frosting processed but this is made by our special technology. It looks much cooler than ordinary frosting. We call this finish as "Mizore(sleety)" finish.

It includes a 3D leaflet that catches people's attention in shops/stores

A simple highball recipe that uses the curved guiding line is listed on a leaflet

A perfect mug in a box for a personal gift!

- High-class cut-style design
- Rather fat shape. Comfortably stable
- A big handle that both men and women find easy to grasp
- Includes a carved guiding line, which allows one to conveniently make cocktails such as highballs

Tebineri

A glass with the warmth of pottery, hand-crafted like texture from clay.

The warmth of hand made pottery's texture has been transferred to a glass tumbler.

The name of "Tebineri" came from a technique of pottery making, which means "making up the shape by hand and fingers without using pottery's wheel.
We transferred the shape made by "tebineri" technique done by craftsman with passion to the glass. It became a tumbler with gentle appearance.
These tumblers can match to traditional Japanese style pottery or earthenware. It's also good for casual usage because they are strong by the thick walls.

Depicted the texture like wave of water with a glass

We achieved to transfer the gentle shape like hand made blow glass by our original technology.
It's assymetric and easy to hold with your hand because some parts are widely dented.
As they can suit to various materials or styles, you can enjoy co-ordination.

青森県指定伝統工芸品
津軽びいどろ

Modern glassware that is created with the abundant nature of Aomori as its theme, capturing iys freshness

Accentuate the chef's creativity with this handmade glassware series. The traditional technique of chu-buki (free-form glassblowing) transforms the soft texture of glass into a transparent glass plate. The hard, cold texture of the glass and the thickness of the glass create a depth in the simple plate. Tsugaru Vidro's unique colors are combined with vivid colored glass and expressed in the small dishes. A playful touch is added with Aomori-type fruits.

Inspired by rocks and ice on the surface of water, the thick glass is engraved with a base and color to express the hard surface of the glass.
The transparency and depth create a sense of solidity.

Heat Resistant Glass

It's stress-free, heat resistant glass bakeware.

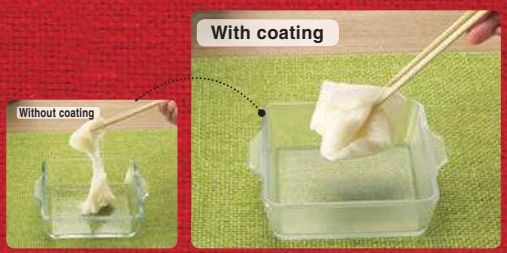

POINT 01

Easy and Quick washing!

The ceramic coating prevents food from sticking to Cera Bake. Since materials do not stick to the container, it is easy to wash and clean. You will enjoy cooking more than before because it is easy to clean up.

POINT 02

Cooking sheets and butter are no longer required!

You can omit the process to use a cooking sheet or butter/grease to prevent food sticking to the container. Enjoy economic and healthy cooking without grease. In addition, cooking time is reduced.

POINT 03

Cera bake is a great-looking container that can be served as it is!

Since it has a simple design, it is easy to match it with other tableware. So, it makes dining table co-ordination simple. There are fewer items that you need to wash after the meal.

POINT 04

It is a long-lasting product that you can use for a long time!

Cera Bake has passed the peeling test using a metal turner over 10,000 times. It is a durable and reliable product that you can use for a long time.

This series was renewed and the item codes were changed in December 2022.

萬古焼
Banko-yaki is No.1 clay pot in Japan

An easy-smoking cooker is now available in the kitchen

Since ancient times, smoking has been used to preserve food items. Nowadays, in spite of the advancement of refrigeration technology, smoking remains a popular cooking method due to the fragrance and flavor that is unique to the method. Now you can enjoy smoking in your way with this easy-to-use cooker.

With a smoking mesh

By placing ingredients on a smoking mesh and adding a dome-shaped glass cover, you can smoke food items evenly with the smoke that circulates under the cover.

With trial smoking chips

The set includes cherry smoking chips (50g) for trial.
※We do not sell smoking chips alone.

MC Container

Let us proudly introduce our new storage container series that combines stainless steel parts and a glass jar, "Metal Cap Containers". It was developed with the concept, "a jar that matches the modern interior". The glass storage containers look smart and fit well when they are placed in a modern kitchen and living room. The usage is limitless depending on ideas and preference. You can make fruit wine and pickles, and store dried food and rice. This series provides you with a great way to show off the content in a beautiful way. It is also popular among professionals. For example, the container can be placed on a counter of a cool bar.

Enjoy making seasonal fruit liqueur

We can feel four seasons by fresh fruits. You can enjoy eating fruits and it can make you get much nutrition, but we offer you to try making fruit liqueur. You can enjoy those fruits for longer time. We have various size of storage bottle for fruit liqueur, you can enjoy fruits more with Aderia storage jars.

Basic Knowledge for making fruit liqueur

1. Alcohol ratio of liqueur ideally should 35 degree or more.
2. Sanitize the bottle by alcohol or dishtowel which absorbs liqueur.
3. Preserve about two months in a glass storage jar. Remove fruits from the jar after that. (If sugar is few, better to preserve for longer time)

How to make plum liqueur (Umeshu)

Ingredients
- 1 Kg of plum
- 500 to 800g of rock sugar or 2 cups of honey
- 1.8L of white liqueur (Alcohol 35 degree)

(1) Prepare fresh and adequate sizes of plum and wash them well.
(2) Remove stem of plum by toothpick, wipe out moist by paper towel.
(3) Place a layer of plums in the jar, then a layer of rock sugar. Repeat placing these two layers alternately.
(4) Pour white liqueur gently into the jar.
(5) Cover by the lid and store the jar in a cool, dark place.Shake the jar occasionally to help the sugar mix with the alcohol.
(6) The liqueur is ready to drink when you are satisfied with the taste.Enjoy Umeshu with your favorite style!

When can you drink? Ready from 2 to 3 months later. A year makes ripe to delicious!

What is Aderia Arrange?

The Aderia Arrange is a glass cup released by Aderia in 1973, known for its plump, curvaceous shape.
Popular during the Showa era, it was sold with various prints and designed for easy everyday use. Itstapered, standard shape suits any drink and is comfortable to hold. Still loved today, it has been reissued in the Aderia Retro series, featuring the Showa-era Aderia “a” mark engraved on the base. *During the Showa era, it was sold under the name “Arrange.”

Plate

Ideal for serving as small plates or as a tray to hold accessories and small objects. Place a plate beneath glasses as a coaster, adding a vibrant touch to your desk.

※ The special print changes color when the temperature changes.
※ Glassware is not dishwasher safe and cannot be washed by soaking or boiling.
※ Please refrain from usnig and storing glassware in places exposed to direct sunlight for extended periods.
※ The glass prints are reproduced using the traditional manual printing process from the 70s, which may result in noticeable design variations.
※ These variations can differ from one piece of glass to another; however, all glassware has successfully passed the manufacturer's quality control standards.

※The porcelain ware in Aderia retro series is planned by ADERIA and manufactured by our domestic partner factory.
※Due to the nature of porcelains, there may be slight variations in shape, capacity, and pattern. The size and capacity listed in the pamphlet are approximate values.

※These mugs can be stacked up to three high. When stackingd dishes, please do not face the mug downward.
※The porcelain ware can be used in a household dishwasher, however, it cannot be used in an industrial dishwasher.

Wide Mug?

This product is based on the ADERIA glass mug cup produced in the 70s.
It features a wide, horizontal shape with a carved base that enhances the design.
The original mug cup had a floral pattern printed on it and was so large that it was difficult to hold with one hand.
ADERIA RETRO has recreated this large mug cup in porcelain, now in a practical size for everyday use.
This porcelain mug cup, showcasing designs from the 70s, is perfect for various uses.

アリス (Cosmos)

"Cosmos," featuring vibrant pop colors of orange and yellow, quickly became one of the most popular products of its time. Launched in 1971, it gained popularity among homemakers and young people alike, adding a lively touch to dining tables everywhere.
The jagged petals are the trademark of this design, and they are still popular today among retro glass lovers and others.

花まわし (Dahlia)

"Dahlia," featuring a charming design of spinning red and white flowers, was sold before 1971.
This Hana-mawashi pattern was initially released as a glass container for sweets and other items. Due to its popularity, additional items, such as goblets and pitchers, were later produced.

梨 (Pear)

The "Pear" pear series, known for its simple and gentle appearance, was launched in 1975 as household glass tableware. Alongside the Alice and Nobana series, it became a popular product during the 70s and was featured in the ADERIA catalog.
Just looking at the round and curvy pear prints will warm your heart.

コレック (Tulip)

"Tulip," featuring a charming orange tulip pattern, was first introduced in 1973.
At that time, Kollek was printed on amber-colored glasses and sold as a gift set.
The glasses, adorned with a sparsely arranged simple tulip design, remain as delightful today as ever and add a cheerful touch to any table.

アデリアラブリティ～ (Baby's Breath)

"Baby's Breath," featuring a charming striped floral pattern, was introduced in 1973.
At that time, it was printed on a stemmed glass made of green frosted glass.
The flowers, arranged in a neat row on the glass, are delightful and warm the hearts of all who see them.

おとぎ話 (Fairy Tale)

"Fairy Tale," which offers a stunning view reminiscent of a European fairy tale, was released in 1971.
At that time, it was sold as a glass container for sweets and other items.
The heartwarming scenes resemble those in a picture book, illustrating people living harmoniously with animals and flowers.
The design sparks the imagination like a story might come to mind as you gaze at it.

フェンス (Fence)

"Fence" is a pattern featuring vermilion circles and straight black lines, released in 1969.
Initially, it was printed on amber-colored glass.
This simple geometric design is stylish and suitable for everyone.
The glass paint has a blurred and smudged effect in certain areas, reflecting the carefree spirit of that era.

熱帯魚 (Tropical Fish)

"Tropical Fish," with its cute, rounded eyes, was a pattern released in 1979.
It was one of a series of magical glasses that changed color when filled with a cold drink.
Pink stripes appear on the bright yellow tropical fish.
The adorable design makes it look like the fish is swimming and blowing bubbles within the glass.

鈴の花 (Lilyof the Valley)

"Bell Flowers," a pattern depicting small, delicate lily-of-the-valley flowers blooming in a row, was released in 1974.
During the Showa era, it was mainly sold as a gift set. Lily of the valley is said to be a symbol of happiness, and perhaps its elegant appearance of blooming downward, hidden by the leaves, has been loved since ancient times.
These glasses will add a chic touch to your dining table.

キャット (Cat)

"Cat," a cute cat standing on two legs, is a pattern that was released in 1970.
The illustration features alternating illustrations of cats facing forward and striped cat silhouettes.
The sight of the cats all connected by their whiskers is very cute. If you look closely, you'll notice that each cat's paw angle and facial expression is slightly different.
It might be fun to try to find your favorite cat.

ノバラ (Nobana)

The "Nobana" series is known for its pure and cute design, which was quite popular alongside the ADERIA 70s hit product, Alice.
This series, launched in 1974, features a set of glassware designed for gifting.
Upon closer inspection, the white flower pattern reveals scattered petals, showing the designer's playful creativity.

花ざかり (Daisy)

"Daisy," which means "flowers in full bloom," is a gorgeous series featuring marguerites cascading across the glass.
The flower field pattern looks bright and joyful on your table.
Hanazakari was first launched in 1971.
Initially, two types were produced: one printed on amber glass and another on clear, uncolored glass.

風船 (Balloon)

"Balloon," drawn with a delicate touch, is a pattern released in 1969.
At that time, ADERIA offered small stemmed cups with printed patterns.
The "Balloon" series appears to float within the glass, gently evoking the nostalgic ambiance of the 70s.

"Rose," featuring large, bold yellow roses, was introduced in 1974.
At that time, it was printed on amber-colored stemmed glasses.
Masquerade means "masked ball," and the design reflects elegance, as its name suggests.

ズーメイト (Zoo Mate)

"Zoo Mate," featuring popular zoo animals with a unique design, was first released in 1976.
At that time, it was marketed as a glass container for storing sweets and other items.
The use of animal motifs was unusual, as floral patterns were popular at the time.
The adorable sleepy leopard and silly-looking tiger will surely make you smile.

花の輪 (Hananowa)

"Hananowa" is a delightful floral pattern that combines white and light blue, first released in 1976.
At that time, it was printed on clear blue glasses.
The design features a striking array of large and small pop-style flowers that bloom across the glass.
The multiple layers of flowers in cool hues create a lovely and gentle atmosphere.

"Primrose," featuring small pale pink flowers arranged in a regular pattern, was released in 1970.
At that time, it was printed on pink-colored stemmed glasses.
Looking closely, you'll notice that the blue-green polka dots in the center are slightly off-center, adding indescribable charm to the design.
The small flower design is both modest and cute, sure to delight the hearts of those who see it.

クジャクのおしゃべり (Peafowl)

"Peafowl,"a pattern of two peacocks happily chatting together,was released in 1980.
It was one of a series of magical glasses that changed color when filled with a cold drink.
The pattern of the feathers, spread out beautifully like a folding fan, changes to vivid colors.
What are the peacocks chatting about as they gaze at each other? You find yourself leaning in and listening.

花レース (Flower Lace)

"Flower Lace," a lovely floral pattern reminiscent of European embroidery, was released in 1979. During the Showa era, it was printed on amber colored glass.
The original "Flower Lace" artwork appears to have been hand-drawn, and the blurred and distorted lines seen here and there give it the unique charm of handcrafted work. Each glass contains a variety of floral patterns, giving a sense of the designer's attention to detail.

タイルリーフ (Tile Leaf)

"Tile Leaf," a pattern featuring plants in a grid pattern, was released in the Showa era (1970). During the Showa era, it was printed on green stemware.
The motifs, housed within square frames, look almost like tiles, and the design, interwoven with rounded flowers and leaves, evokes a certain Nordic flair.
The refreshing blue and light blue hues evoke a pleasant sense of nostalgia.

Tsuyoiko Glass

Developing children's sensibilities through glassware

Rather than keeping glassware away from children because they are prone to breaking, it is important to give them the experience of handling things carefully and to let them come into contact with the "real thing" that is glass, a natural material, from an early age.
"Tsuyoiko Glass" was born from the perspective of a childcare worker who is also a food education instructor.

We have added the "Tsuyoiko Glass L" to the popular "Tsuyoiko Glass" series which allows the whole family to enjoy food education together.
The "Tsuyoiko Glass L" is suitable for children in the middle grades of elementary school, when the M size begins to feel small. It is a size that can be used by adults as well.
This series allows families to spend precious time together, allowing children to experience the "real thing" that is glass.

The Bowl, Glass S, and Glass M come in a package of three, each containing one of three different colored leaflet.

Each large glass contains one beige leaflet.

110 CRAFT SAKE GLASS

The Premium Nippon Taste 吉祥花鳥　Auspicious Flowers and Birds

A new addition to the "Premium Nippon Taste" series is the "Auspicious Flower and Bird."
Paintings that primarily depict beautiful flowers and birds are called "flower and bird paintings," and are popular for their artistic value and auspiciousness, and have a history of being used as gifts.
"Auspicious Flowers and Birds" is a glass inspired by such flower and bird paintings, decorated with beautiful flowers, birds, and auspicious patterns.
Each pattern has a special meaning. These glassware are perfect as gifts for loved ones or for enjoying a special moment.

Each glass features a combination of beautiful flowers, birds, and auspicious motifs, and each has a special meaning.

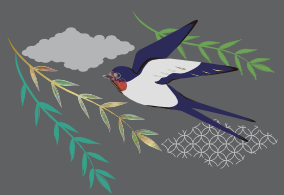

Sparrow and Nanten

Each glass features a combination of beautiful flowers, birds, and auspicious motifs, and each has a special meaning.

Mandarin ducks and irises

The design incorporates the symbol of pain, which wards off evil, and the image of a mandarin duck couple standing close together surrounded by waves of blue ocean, representing the wish for everlasting happiness.

Swallow and willow

It is said that when swallows build nests, it brings prosperity to business.
This design combines the Shippo pattern, which brings connections with people, with the willow tree, which wards off evil spirits.

~ Blowing ink (Fukizumi) ~ Mt. Fuji and Rabbit

"Blown ink" is a traditional decorative technique for blue and white porcelain.
Gosu (indigo blue) is sprayed on like a spray bottle, creating a soft depiction with varying shades.
Since ancient times, auspicious motifs such as Mount Fuji and the moon and rabbits have been popular.
*Mount Fuji (good health) Moon Rabbit (immortality, rebirth)
The design is transferred onto glassware using modern technology.

The Premium Nippon Taste Journey
A glass-based journey around Japan

Across Japan are time-honored cultures, skilled craftsmanship, and beautiful scenery. We sought to capture this beauty of Japan in glass so it can be enjoyed at home. With the concept “Travel around Japan through glass,” this series lets you experience the unique charm of each region through glassware, using modern transfer techniques. Loved in Japan and abroad, it makes a wonderful gift—or a treat for yourself.
Begin the journey in Japan’s southernmost region: Okinawa, home of the distinctive Ryukyu culture.

A Journey Through Japan: Scenes Okinawa

The Premium NIPPON Taste

We captured some spectacular Japanese traditional cultural design and transferred to our glassware using our modern technology. These can be used as not only display but also main character on the table.

The Premium Nippon Taste

日月　Jitsugetsu

"Jitsu-getsu" is one of our traditional designs, meaning "Sun & Moon". The gold circle is described as sun and silver circle is described as moon.

"Mizore(Sleety)" finish

The finish of glass surface looks like frosting processed but this is made by our special technology. It looks much cooler than ordinary frosting. We call this finish as "Mizore(sleety)" finish.

Red and black stem glasses(S-6257) are painted with 漆(Urushi:. Natural lacquer collected from the Urushi tree) by skilled craftsmen.

みぞれ九谷　Mizore Kutani

We have combined glass specially treated with a mizore sleet type design with Kutani-yaki, a traditional craft from Ishikawa prefecture. Enjoy this new type of tableware that unites modern processing technology with traditional Kutani-yaki techniques.

"Mizore(Sleety)" finish
The finish of glass surface looks like frosting processed but this is made by our special technology. It looks much cooler than ordinary frosting. We call this finish as "Mizore(sleety)" finish.

The pattern on the stem and stand is painted by craftman of Kutani-yaki with method of calligraphy and it makes modern atmosphere.

Sake hit the center of tongue and it makes feel mellow taste of sake.

Sake spread inside of mouth and it accents aroma.

Sake go through middle of tongue and straightly down your throat.

Zodiac

Since ancient times, the Japanese Zodiac animals have been popular as auspicious symbols. People used the animal sign of the current year to wish for prosperity in business and safety in the home, while the animal of the year of one's birth was used as an amulet to ensure good health and to ward off evil. Folk toys created from these customs have been reproduced on our "Medeta Eto" glassware. We hope you'll find a lucky item for yourself or as a gift for your loved ones.

medetamono

Since ancient times, it has been believed in Japan that good luck charms have the mystical power to bring happiness.
These good luck charms are depicted on everyday items to bring good fortune to the user.

medetamono Mini Plate

Cats have been valued since ancient times for protecting crops and silkworms from rats. Over time, cat figurines that beckon to people have become symbols of good luck. Although there are various theories, the right hand is commonly believed to bring fortune and good luck, while the left-hand beckons people. The meanings may also vary depending on the cat's color and pattern.

White Cat
Fulfillment in Love
The white cat is often seen as a messenger from the gods and might bring about positive romantic encounters.

Black Cat
Protection Against Misfortune
The black cat's eyes, which shine in the dark, are believed to have the power to ward off bad luck and darkness.

Calico Cat
Success in Business
Many lucky Maneki Neko cats are calicos, which were known for catching rats and bringing prosperity.

Black Tabby Cat
Purification and Protection Against Evil
Wish for purification and protection against evil with this bi-color cat. The color white symbolizes purification, while black is associated with protection against evil.

Cream Tabby Cat
Good Fortune with Money
The golden cat's fur, when illuminated, resembles gold and is thought to attract good fortune and wealth.

Invitation to Good Fortune
Thousands of Customers

Cats have been valued since ancient times for protecting crops and silkworms from rats. Over time, cat figurines that beckon to people have become symbols of good luck.
Although there are various theories, the right hand is commonly believed to bring fortune and good luck, while the left-hand beckons people. The meanings may also vary depending on the cat's color and pattern.

Longevity and Long Life
Success in Life

Fuji, whose homonym can mean immortality, is believed to represent a wish for long life and longevity. The distinctive shape of Japan's tallest mountain—narrow at the top and wide at the bottom—symbolizes high goals and ideals. Thus, it is thought that wishes for success and prosperity will be fulfilled.

Protection Against Evil
Sound Health

Figurine modeled on Bodhidharma, the founder of Zen Buddhism
Bodhidharma is said to have worn a red robe, which inspired the creation of the red Daruma doll. The color red is believed to have the power to ward off evil and cure illnesses.

Success in Business
Long Life

The sea bream, often offered to the gods, symbolizes business prosperity because it is held by Ebisu, one of the Seven Lucky Gods, known as the god of prosperity. It is also considered a fish that represents longevity.

medetamono (Lucky item)　独楽 KOMA

The “medetamono” series of glass tableware captures the fascinating colors and patterns of traditional spinning tops found in various parts of Japan.
“Spinning tops are said to bring good fortune when kept nearby.” We hope you will gift the “medetamono” tableware to wish your loved one's happiness or as a lucky charm for yourself.

Hakata Goma

The pattern of heaven, earth, and people, with gold representing “heaven,” red representing “earth,” and green representing “people,” is said to be good for warding off evil.

Edo Goma

Red represents “health,” black represents “strength,” yellow represents “wealth,” green represents “good harvest,” and purple represents “nobility.” The combination of these five colors is said to bestow longevity and ward off bad luck.

Oyama Koma

The red, indigo, and purple pattern comes from Buddhist altar fittings and is meant to bring family safety and business prosperity.

medetamono Fukujyu

The mamezara are packaged in a colorful pink box, ideal for a gift.

Crane: Longevity and marital bliss
The crane symbolizes longevity and marital bliss, as once a couple becomes husband and wife, they will happily remain together for the rest of their lives.

Turtle: Longevity and increased fortune
With their long life span, turtles are considered a symbol of longevity.
The small turtle is also called the “coin turtle” because its shell resembles a small oval coin and is said to bring good luck in money.

Sea bream: Prosperity in business, longevity
Since Ebisu-san, one of the Seven Gods of Good Fortune, holds a sea bream in his arms, it symbolizes business prosperity. Also, since it is one of the longest-lived fish, it is regarded as a delicacy for long life.

EL DORADO

Since ancient times,mainly in Europe,there were legends about a city filled with gold. Around 16th century, explorers believed that "El Dorado" a golden empire, existed in the innermost depths of South America. "Zipang", a country of gold, was described in "The Travel of Marco Polo".
As an homage to the legends related to the world of the gold, we created the "El Dorado"series by expanding the image of the legends and combining it with the pieces.
With our special technology, we corrode the surface of the glass to create a crystal-like face, and apply a gold transferring process. The products are classic, dazzling and splendid.
We hope this series, inspired by the romantic fantasy about the golden land, will make your daily life more colorful and fascinating.

TEBINERI HARUIRO

Our factory is located in Iwakura, Aichi Prefecture, home to the Gojo River Cherry Blossoms and one of "Japan's Top 100 Cherry Blossom Spots." We have superimposed the blossoms swirling on the Gojo River onto our "TEBINERI" glass, a line we have produced at our Iwakura Plant for 20 years. Each blossom is carefully drawn onto the glassware.

Frothing function

By pouring the cold beer to the sand blasted part, you can enjoy the soft and creamy beer head. 9548/9549 have that function.

Leaflet is included.

TSUYOIKO Glass nico

It is our hope that little hands and lips will come in contact with real glass during daily life, and help develop rich minds. We have incorporated these hopes into the small "TsuyoiKo Glass Nico" (Strong Children's Glass Nico) with a smiley face. The reinforced opening makes the mouth more resistant to cracking and chipping than regular glass, and enhances safety. The face print is a playful addition to the glassware, and is perfect for children's snack time.

Get the idea from fathers and mothers' opinion -Glassware enjoying like reading book-
The feature is different designs are printed on the inside and outside of glass, taking the advantage of transparent of glass.
Children only see a part of silhouette of animals when the glass filled with juice.
Once they drink up juice, the animals are shown up.
We hope children enjoy meals like reading books.
This series is created by fathers and mothers' opinion and idea.
